

Canadian College of Microbiologists

Collège Canadien des
Microbiologistes

CCM Workshop
Wednesday, March 30, 2016
Vancouver, BC
The Wall Centre Downtown Vancouver

We Are What We Eat: Our Shared Obligations to Promote Animal, Ecosystem and Public Health from Microbes to Muscles

By the end of the workshop attendees should be able to:

Describe the future of one health and its impact on human health
List options for better service delivery in both human and animal health
Discuss improved surveillance in animals and its impact on human health
Consider how we link research and add value to our efforts and resources

Moderator and Speaker

Speaker: Dr. Bonnie Buntain,

Professor Emerita, Public Health and Food Safety, University of Calgary, Calgary AB; Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Preventive Medicine

“One Health- Sharing Our Obligations for Food Safety and Security in the 21st Century” and “Meeting Our Shared Obligations: Tools to Get There and Added Value”

Guest Speakers:

Dr. Kyle Garver

Head Virology Research Program, Aquatic Animal Health Section, Government of Canada

“Canadian Aquaculture: Sustainable Fish Production or Microbe Factories?”

Dr. Victoria Bowes

Avian Pathologist, BC Ministry of Agriculture and Lands

“A Shared Crisis: The Impact of Avian Influenza Outbreaks on Agriculture, Public Health, Food Security and the Economy”

Dr. Clayton Botkin,

Industry Specialist, Livestock Health Management and Regulatory Unit, BC Ministry of Agriculture and Lands

“The Sad Side of Happy Chickens: Salmonella enterica Enteritidis (SE) and ‘Backyard’ Poultry Production”

Dr. Brian Radke,

Public Health Veterinarian, Livestock Health Management and Regulatory Unit, BC Ministry of Agriculture and Lands

“Our Shared Policy Obligations: The Mug’s Game of Governing Antimicrobial Use Without Measurable Objectives”

Canadian College of Microbiologists

*Collège Canadien des
Microbiologistes*

Dr. Lindsay Kehler and Dr. Stewart Ritchie
Poultry Veterinarians, Canadian Poultry Consultants, Ltd.

“Is Antibiotic-Free a Good Place to Be: Antibiotic Stewardship Strategies in the Poultry Industry and Their Impact on Poultry and Public Health”

Break Out Groups with Panel Members and the Audience

Breakfast will be provided.

Sponsorship for this workshop has been provided by CACMID, Luminex Corporation, Alere, Roche, Seegene Canada, the BC Chicken Marketing Board, BC Turkey, Meriel and Thermo Fisher Scientific.

Registration:

$80 plus 5% HST

To register for the CCM Workshop please visit either www.ammi.ca or www.cacmid.ca and follow the directions to the annual conference sections. Late registration is also available at the door.

For more information: Contact coordinators

Dr. Steven Drews steven.drews@albertahealthservices.ca

Dr. Chelsea Himsworth Chelsea.Himsworth@gov.bc.ca